Request for No Wake Zone	Request for No Wake Zone – Jack Young of the Catawba Yacht Club reported. Jack Young, Board of Directors of the Catawba Yacht Club along with 13+ petitioners have requested that the cove on the east side of Lake Wylie, just south of Youngblood Road West be made No Wake due to the following reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Heightened danger from excessive boat wakes to the safety of swimmers, adult, youth and especially small children;</li> <li>➤ Drastically increased erosion along the shoreline;</li> <li>➤ Increasing damage to docks, boats and shoreline structures, resulting in continuing expensive repairs/replacements;</li> <li>➤ Reduction in the right to quiet enjoyment due to increased motor noise levels;</li> </ul> Chairman Stowe asked Mr. Young if he wanted to comment on the existing buoys that are at the mouth of this cove? Mr. Young stated that two of the buoys have been vandalized and have sunk. Request for No Wake Zone (continued)	saying that when these same reasons are compared to other coves that are in similar size (Brown’s, Paw Creek, Wither’s, Boyd’s, etc), there was just not enough boat traffic to justify a No Wake zone. Chairman Stowe addressed Mr. Young by reassuring him, along with the other residents, that the Commission is aware of the problem in the cove and will continue to do more research. These guidelines still need work done to them before the Commission can implement this process.</li> <li>➤ Commissioner(s) need to be assigned to take on the task of reviewing the plans that are proposed to the Commission. An idea is to possibly hire a firm who knows how to read such plans.</li> <li>➤ Commissioner McLean asked if LWMC could go to DEHC for reviews? Vice Chairman Montgomery responded that DEHC would be involved “after the fact”. If a developer is in violation, then DEHC gets involved. Executive Director Mike McLaurin added that DEHC typically enforces only the minimum requirements. The Commission should consider recommendations stronger than the state requirements.</li> </ul>	The matter will be placed on the September 25th agenda for discussion and possible action.
